Christmas Preparations-- A Pre-Holiday Reminder

By U. S. Schauer, Pastor Central Evangelical United Brethren Church

We have entered the Advent season consisting of the four Sundays preceding Christmas. Again the Christian Church witnesses to its faith that Christ has come in the flesh to this world. Christians believe that Christ came in the fulfillment of prophecy and in the fullness of time. When all things were ready, at the time when the world's expectation, need and preparation were at the zero hour, "God sent forth His Son."

At that moment John the Baptist appeared on the scene heralding the approach of the Deliverer for whom his people had been waiting and longing down through the centuries. Like one of the flaming prophets of old, in whose line he indeed stood, he cried, "Repent ye for the kingdom of God is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." Men heeded the cry of the austere wilderness preacher for we are told that multitudes from the highest to the lowest ranks of society flocked to him out of Jerusalem and the entire countryside. Instead of being offended at his sharp denunciation of their numbers, great numbers of them were baptized and confessed their sins.

One day Jesus of Nazareth appeared in the company of those who had come to hear John preach. Such was his spiritual insight that he recognized Jesus as the Deliverer for whom his people had been so long waiting and he proclaimed: "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

Like the prophet Esaias before him, John declared that the one who must be prepared for the coming Messiah as he appropriated Esaias's words: "Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth." Here is a road-building operation which we may well consider gigantic even in our day of bulldozers and huge earth-moving machinery.

One is also reminded of the words which the then Kaiser of Germany made to Palestine. The Sultan of Turkey then controlled the Holy Land and he ordered that the Wall of Jerusalem should be breached in order that his honored friend and ally might have a more ready access to the Holy City than the narrow gates afforded. And so the madly led way for the majestic entrance into Jerusalem of the Kaiser.

But more than such physical preparations are needed for the welcome of our Saviour-King. The highway building may well be the figure of spiritual and moral preparations that should be made. During the next few weeks we will be busy with our preparations for the observance of our Christmas holiday. There will be the purchasing and sending of gifts, the sending and receiving of Christmas greetings, the selecting and decorating of a Christmas tree, special baking and cooking and all the other attendant bustle and hurry of getting ready for Santa Claus which will bring many to the point of exhaustion and nervous collapse. All of which leads one to inquire whether we are not losing sight of the real meaning of Christmas in what

Employers' Group Meeting Set for Jan. 5

The annual meeting of the membership of the Harbor Area Employers' Council will be held on January 5, 1950, in the Council Chambers of the Torrance City Hall. It was announced this week by Francis S. Selover, Executive Secretary.

The Board of Directors, meeting recently, named a nominating committee which nominated seven members of the Council for submission to the annual membership meeting for election to the Board. Six directors will be chosen, and there are five hold-over directors. The board is being increased from 9 to 11. Nominated are: Harry M. Carr, Realtor, San Pedro; C. L. Prow; J. J. Newberry Co., Los Angeles; Thomas K. Ware, Valley Food Market, Gardena; J. W. Jensen, Better Foods Markets, Wilmington; B. M. Malone, McManis, San Pedro; J. E. Sewell, A. & F. Drug, Wilmington, and Charles V. Jones, Torrance Hardware Co., Torrance, Carr, Prow and Ware are incumbents. James E. Wagner, San Pedro, has asked that he be relieved of his duties on the board, Selover said.

Written nominations from members in good standing will be requested which official notice of the meeting goes out in a few days, the executive secretary said. Hold-over directors are: A. J. McCown, McCown Drug Stores, Inc., president; H. W. Smith, A-J Photo Service Inc., San Pedro, vice president; Cecil Caldwell, Caldwell's Dept. Stores, Wilmington; Leon Ferrier, Harbor Laundry Co., San Pedro, and Paul Diamond, the Gay Shop, Torrance. Terms of office of directors and officers are two years.

For a truly Christian observance of Christmas—some other preparations are indicated. It is a time for happy fellowship in the home, and the expression of love to one another for Jesus was born into a family and has sanctified home-life. It is a time for remembering the needy for we remember that Christ became poor when He came to earth that we might be eternally enriched. It is a time to rid ourselves of all bitterness and ill-will and to forgive the slights and offenses we may have received as we hear along the music of the angel-choir singing, "Peace on earth and goodwill among men."

Yes, the joy and the peace of Christmas will be ours as we prepare the way for our Saviour by leveling our proud and selfish spirits, as we fill in the swamps of sinful and destructive inclination, as we practice uprightness instead of crooked devices, and as we pave the highway for the smooth march of peace on earth. "Prepare ye the way of the Lord," as we again approach the celebration of His Natal Day that the radiance of His presence may gladden your life and that all who sit in darkness and the shadow of death may lift up faces lighted with hope as they are lead in the ways of peace.

Women Handbill Passers Freed Sustaining a demurrer filed by a San Pedro attorney, City Judge Otto B. Willett Friday released two women charged with violating the "anti-handbill" ordinance.

The two women, Delphine Smith, 37, 1410 Annapola avenue, and Nettie Baker, 35, San Pedro were arrested recently for passing out handbills to workers changing shifts at Columbia Steel Company. The harbor attorney, Sam Major, filed the demurrer on an amended complaint which was filed by City Attorney C. Douglas Smith against the two women.

Judge Willett ruled that since the handbills said to be advertising the Communist Party were of a political nature, to ban their distribution would be unconstitutional.

"STREET SCENE" ON STEEL SHOW United States Steel's December 11 presentation will be the Pulitzer Prize-Winning drama, "Street Scene," starring Richard Conte, Shirley Booth and Diana Lynn, via stations of the National Broadcasting Company network at 5:30 p.m. (PST). The "Theatre Guild On the Air" full-hour adaptation of Elmer Rice's exciting stage play concerns the dramatic events occurring during a span of forty-eight hours in the lives of occupants of a tenement on New York's lower East Side.
